New Health Sciences Library
Coming in May 2022

Leah DeSantis, Active Edge & Research Services Librarian, Health Sciences Library

Tania Bardyn, Associate Dean for Health Sciences, UW Libraries
Health Sciences Education Building

The library space is located on the Third floor of the Health Science Education Building (HSEB)

Construction Budget: $60 million
Program Goals

- Interprofessional Education
- Active Learning
- Simulated Learning
- Information Synthesis & Data Management
Library Areas Named After Pacific Northwest Trees

- Douglas Fir Quiet Area
- Ponderosa Pine Study Area & Cedar Lounge
- Western Hemlock Technology & Learning Center
- Red Alder High Top Collaboration Space

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON
Four small high top tables, each with 2 high top chairs

One larger high top table that can sit 6 people

Maximum seating is 14 people or 6 for socially distanced seating

“red alder trees” by Oregon State University is licensed under CC BY-SA 2.0
Western Hemlock Technology & Learning Center

- High Top Seating
- Data Visualization Table
- Flat panel display
- Digital video inputs at the partition for use at the table with a portable device
- Video camera with integrated sound bar and microphone
- Maximum seating is 20 people
- 10 for socially distanced seating
Western Hemlock Technology and Learning Center

Red Alder High Top Collaboration Space

Help and Information Desk

Image credit: Miller Hull Partnership, Lease Crutcher Lewis, GGN, S/L/A/M Collaborative
Ponderosa Pine Study Area & Cedar Lounge

- The Study area has seating for 9 people
- The Lounge has 4 chairs and a table
- Maximum seating 13 people
- 7 people for social distanced seating
Douglas Fir Quiet Area

- Two large tables that can seat 12 people
- Quiet group study or individual study
- Maximum 6 students for socially distanced seating

"Douglas-fir Cone" by born1945 is licensed under CC BY 2.0.
Library Support & Service Ideas

- Scholarly Communications
- Systematic Reviews & Knowledge Synthesis
- Consultations
- Citation Management
- Publishing & Research Impact
- Research Data Management
- REDCap Support
- Database Searching

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON
Thank you!

All those in the UW Libraries who contributed to this presentation!

For Questions about Programming and Services email Leah DeSantis: desa3413@uw.edu